SERIOUS REVOLT.

MUKDEN WAR LORD'S COLLAPSE.

TROOPS MUTINY.

Peking, Nov. 26.

From a mass of rumours, there seems no doubt that there is a serious revolt among the Mukden forces, who are fighting each other at Luanchow, Chinwangtao and elsewhere along the Peking-Mukden Railway.

It is still claimed in some quarters that Kuo Sung-shing has captured Mukden and made a prisoner of Chang Tso-lin, but other reports state that troops loyal to Chang Tso-lin have broken the railway at Chinwangtao in order to hinder Kuo Sung-shing's advance to Mukden. The Chihli Tupan, Li Ching-lin, is preparing to declare the independence of Mukden and is also drafting a telegram urging Chang Tso-lin to retire.

There is no doubt that the Mukden Party has collapsed at least temporarily, thus immensely strengthening Feng Yu-hsiang.

Cabinet changes are considered imminent. It is expected that all the Anfuists and Mukdenites will be forced to resign and a Kuomintang Cabinet be installed.—Reuter.

CHIHLI INDEPENDENT.

Tientsin, Nov. 25.

A telegram which has been sent to Mukden by Li Ching-lin declares Chihli's independence, "thus providing a buffer state between Fengtien and Peking." The message states that Li Ching-lin will hereafter only take orders from Tuan Chi-jui.—Reuter.

NEW APPOINTMENTS.

Peking, Nov. 25.

This evening's papers state that as a result of a secret meeting, the Government has decided to make the following appointments:—

Sun Chuan-fang, Tupan of Kiangsu.

Lu Hsiang-ting, Tupan of Chekiang.

Teng Ju-cho, Tupan of Anhui.

Lu Yung-hsiang, Special Commissioner to investigate Shantung situation.

It is stated that these names will be submitted to Feng Yu-hsiang, and if he approves of them a Mandate will be issued to-morrow.—Reuter.

TUPANS DISMISSED.

Peking, Nov. 26.

A Mandate issued early this morning dismisses Yang Yu-ting and Chiang Teng-heuan for the Tupanships of Kiangsu and Anhui respectively, and appoints Sun Chuan-fang and Teng Ju-cho thereto.

Authentic news of the happenings in Manchuria is still lacking.—Reuter.

Nine arrivals and nine departures yesterday left the number of vessels in harbour at the previous day's figure, 63. Thirty-four of these are British.

A special memorial service will be held by the Parsee Community of Hongkong to-morrow at the Parsee Church, when the head priest will hold a Jasan ceremony and recite prayers and invocations in memory of the late won twice, and drawn seven BANISHEE'S STORY.

SENT BACK BY PICKETS.

When charged before Mr. E. W. Hamilton, at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court this morning, with unlawfully returning from banishment, a Hakka pleaded that although he was ordered to be deported for life, he was not taken out of the Colony. On crossing the border, after being liberated at Loma, he was prevented from entering Chinese territory by the pickets and was sent back to this side of the frontier.

The defendant's criminal record showed that he had been convicted and sentenced to imprisonment on five occasions and had been banished three times.

A Chinese detective deposed to having taken the defendant across the border on September 30th last, and his Worship remanded the defendant for one week, remarking that there was a possibility of the defendant's story being true.

MAJOR'S BOXING CHALLENGE.

REPLY FROM SEAMAN GARDNER.

We have received the following letter from Seaman Gardner, of H.M.S. Hermes, in reply to the boxing challenge which we published yesterday from Harry Major:—

Sir:—In reply to the letter by Harry Major which appeared in your paper last night, it must be generally known throughout the Colony that H.M.S. Hermes is due to leave Hongkong about the middle of December, and that I am therefore unable to accept his challenge to fight sometime in January.

The fixing of my future bouts while remaining in Hongkong is in the hands of the Hongkong Boxing Association.—Yours, etc., SEAMAN GARDNER.

SINGAPORE NAVAL BASE.

EFFECT ON LABOUR MARKET.

London, Nov. 25.

In the House of Commons, the Rt. Hon. C. P. Trevelyan asked for the results of the Admiralty's investigation with the Colonial Office into the demand by the Singapore United Rubber Plantations Company that less wages should be paid to coolie labour at the naval base, on the ground that it is tending to raise the cost of local coolie labour. Mr. W. C. Bridgman replied that reports from Singapore called for by the Colonial Office and Admiralty had not yet been received.—Reuter.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS TOURNEY.

FAILURE OF WORLD'S CHAMPION.

London, Nov. 25.

Twenty-one Chess Masters are competing in the International tournament which is proceeding at Moscow of which, as a result of the eleven rounds played so far, M. Bogoljubov leads with eight-and-a-half points. He is followed by M. Lasker with eight points. The feature of the tournament has been the comparative failure of the world's champion, M. Capablanca, with five-and-a-half points, who has been beaten twice and only won twice, and drawn seven

STRIKE RULES.

PROMISE OF JAPANESE RESPECT.

CANTON INCIDENT.

Mr. Foo Ping-sheung, the Commissioner of Foreign Affairs in Canton, perceiving that the Japanese Consul recently has promised to prohibit his nationals from violating the strike, specially despatched a letter in reply to that of the Transport Labour Union, says the Canton Gazette. It reads as follows:—

"We received your letter stating that as the Japanese To Tin in running a steam launch to Pak Ngo Tam to convey passengers from the s.s. Honam was violating the strike movements and requesting us to investigate the Japanese Consul's attitude towards the present strike."

"After I had despatched a letter to the Japanese Consul, he sent a delegate to our Bureau stating that our letter under date of November 7 was received. As to its contents relating to the trouble some time ago, it was entirely and thoroughly understood. The delegate expressed gratitude for our attention in improving the relations between Japan and China."

"The Japanese Consul has no other idea except to hope eagerly for an early settlement of the present strike so as to render both the Chinese and the foreigners peace. They believe that their attitude is clearly acknowledged by us. Consequently the Japanese Consul always advised their countrymen in Canton that they should take regard to the Oriental welfare and the national relationship between China and Japan, and not commit any action which would damage the good feelings of Chinese people or injure the national relationship between us. Such action of the Japanese Consul was also acknowledged by us but unfortunately there were two or three of their countrymen, who, for the sake of maintaining their living, committed those actions which they were compelled to do and which created misunderstanding among our Chinese. They expressed regret and the Japanese Consul has promised to prohibit their countrymen from infringing the strike regulations again."

ASSAULTED POLICE.

INDIAN SENT TO GAOL.

Hari Singh, an Indian watchman, has been sent to prison for four weeks, with the prospect of a further extension of two weeks, if he is unable to pay a fine of $10 imposed this morning on conviction on charges of assaulting a police constable and creating a disturbance in Spring Garden Lane.

Lance Sergeant Collyer said that when he went to this street to investigate a complaint, he was held by two of Hari Singh's companions, while the watchman himself pummelled him in the eye.

The Magistrate (Mr. R. E. Lindell) viewed the assault with gravity, and he not only withheld the option of a fine but also recommended the man for deportation on completion of his sentence.

BRITISH COMMUNISTS.

SENTENCED AT OLD BAILEY.

London, Nov. 25.

The trial of twelve Communist leaders at the Old Bailey has resulted in all the accused being found guilty. Five, namely Inkpin, Rust, Pollitt, Gallacher and Hannington, were sentenced to twelve months in the second division. The others, who refused to be bound over and were sentenced to three months in the first division.

CROP OF MOTOR ACCIDENTS.

SEVERAL HOSPITAL CASES.

There was a further crop of motor accidents occurred yesterday. In one case a heavy lorry belonging to the Rural Land Investment Company was the cause of the knocking down of a lamp post and the damaging of concrete uprights and railings at a point near the top Peak Tram Station. The driver has explained that at the time he was backing his vehicle, and he says the accident could not have been avoided.

A Chinese pedestrian, who ventured to cut across the junction of Queen's Road and Garden Road at the wrong moment, was knocked down by a taxi, and sustained injuries which resulted in his admission into the Government Civil Hospital.

Very similar circumstance attended an accident in which a car, owned and driven by Mr. F. J. de Rome, was involved. While driving along Queen's Road East, near Wing Street, a Chinese, without warning, suddenly dashed out from under the verandah, and was knocked down before Mr. de Rome could pull up. The man was taken to hospital, but not detained.

Another Chinese, a boatman, was taken to hospital following an accident in which he and his leg injured through being knocked down by a car belonging to Messrs. Lane, Crawford, Ltd., in Wanchai Road.

A 7-year-old Chinese boy was also taken to hospital through being run into by a taxi in Yee Woo Street. Injuries sustained were to the legs and arms, but they were not of a serious nature.

Following a collision in Nathan Road, Kowloon, last evening between a motor car and a ricksha, a dispute which ensued from the accident has been referred to the Traffic Department for settlement. It appears that a car driven by a Chinese student ran into a ricksha and caused extensive damage to the vehicle, while slightly injuring the coolie. The student sought to settle the matter on the spot by offering $25 compensation for the damage and $10 "medicine money" for the coolie. Both these offers were rejected by the coolie who has claimed that the damage to his ricksha amounted to $40.

CANTON SHIPPING.

JAPANESE SERVICES.

With a view to developing the industries of their country, (says the Canton Gazette) Japanese shipping syndicates are busily making preparations to maintain a direct and regular shipping service with Canton.

It is said that the s.s. Kosa Maru is coming to Canton from Kobe with a load of general cargo and over 200 passengers on board. A telegram was received in Canton on Monday stating that this steamer would arrive at Whampoa on the 24th instant.

Beside the s.s. Kosa Maru other steamers will be put on this run.

DISARMAMENT AGAIN.

LEAGUE DISCUSSION PENDING.

London, Nov. 25.

In the House of Lords, referring to disarmament as an essential part of the pacification of the world, Lord Cecil stated that the committee of the League Council would recommend to the Council the constitution of a body to investigate the principles on which disarmament should proceed, and the nature of the programme to be submitted to that body. He added that the committee would meet on December 3, and he would attend on behalf of the Government.

PIRATES CAUGHT.

FIGHT ON WEST RIVER.

GUNBOATS' HAUL.

News comes from Canton of an engagement which Chinese gunboats have had with two pirate launches, a stiff fight afloat being followed by a battle on shore, which eventually resulted in the capture of a number of the pirates, the seizing of the pirated launches and the release of a number of native boats and kidnapped people held by the pirate gang.

Reporting on the matter, the Canton Gazette says that on the 19th instant, the pirates held up several firewood carrying boats in the West River together with a cargo boat. Those who were lucky enough to escape at once proceeded to Kongmoon to report the matter to the Naval Authorities. On receipt of this information, Lo Wing Kung, accompanied by two small gunboats, started off in search of the pirates in different directions.

On reaching Chao-lin river in the district of Sunwei, they met the private launches which put up a desperate fight against the two small gunboats. During the fight, the gunboat Kong Kung shelled the pirate launches several times, and put the pirates into terror. Seeing their inability to resist the law, the pirates landed on shore and fought for two hours before retreating.

The Kong Kung captured 10 pirates together with their launches and recaptured several boats and over 20 captives.

On the 22nd instant the gunboat Kong Kung brought the pirates, their launches and their victims to Canton. They will be disposed of by the Naval Department.

INDIANS AT LAW.

MONEY LOAN DISPUTE.

An Indian money-lender's claim for $33, against another Indian, failed before Mr. Justice Wood, in the Summary Court this morning.

The plaintiff stated that he lent the money to the defendant in 1923, in separate sums, and he brought three Indian witnesses to testify to his statement. He had not obtained a receipt, and could not produce documents to support his claim.

The defendant denied that he had borrowed the money, and said the plaintiff lent the money to a Chinese, who had since disappeared, and had tried to make him (defendant) responsible.

Judgment was given for the defendant with costs. Mr. Justice Wood saying he did not think the plaintiff had proved that he had lent the money to the defendant.

OPIUM HAUL.

DISCOVERY ON JAPANESE SHIP.

Concealed in the coal bunkers, 1,150 taels of raw opium was unearthed by police officers aboard the Amakusa Maru when the vessel arrived here from Haiphong the day before yesterday.

The drug which is believed to be of Yunnanese origin, smuggled aboard at Haiphong, was confiscated under an order made by Mr. R. E. Lindell at the Central Magistrate's Court this morning as the result of a search of the vessel.

A. D. C. SHOW.

HONGKONG BOOKING CUSTOM.

A contributor sends us the following:—That the public intends to take "A Little Bit of Fluff" to its collective heart is obvious from the number of seats already taken. But people here seem to start to book at the end, and work backwards. Probably by now the last night is all booked up, but as one works backwards one finds that on the first night there are not far short of half the seats still to be had, luckily for the remiss ones. That is truly strange. At Home, the First Night is an occasion. It shows a strange hanging back on the part of the Hongkong public, who do not often get such an opportunity, as it precludes a second visit. However, that is the public's misfortune—and their fault! What interests the writer is the fact. If any of the students of psychology, of whom there are many in Hongkong, can throw a light on this strange manifestation of mass psychology, it would be of great interest to hear it.

M.I. DISASTER.

BRITAIN'S SUBMARINE EXPENDITURE.

London, Nov. 25.

In the House of Commons a series of questions with regard to the M.I. elicited the information that from 1902-03 to March 31st, last £46,800,000 were spent on building submarines, £5,700,000 on repairs, and £1,308,000 annually on maintenance.

It was also stated that surface vessels participating in the exercises with the M.I. flew a red flag to show that the submarine was submerged.—Reuter.

PAINT MIGHT BE A CLUE.

Stockholm, Nov. 25.

The examination of the steamer Vidar has not proved whether the damage was due to a collision with the M.I., but an attempt will be made to collect enough supposed paint found in a few places on the hull for a sample to be forwarded to England for scrutiny.—Reuter.

FRENCH CABINET CRISIS.

M. HERRIOT ACCEPTS TASK.

Paris, Nov. 25.

After M. Briand had refused to form a Cabinet President Doumergue called upon M. Paul Doumer. Following M. Doumergue's conference with his political friends, he told President Doumergue this afternoon that he cannot form a Cabinet.—Reuter.

It is confirmed that M. Paul Doumer has declined to form a Cabinet.—Reuter.

Later information is that M. Herriot has agreed to form a Cabinet.—Reuter.

CANTON NEWS.

SUN FO NOT RETURNING.

A Canton report says that in reply to Wang Ching-wai's invitation to resume his post as Chief of the Construction Department, Sun Fo has absolutely declined, having definitely decided not to return to Canton.

The report further states that Wu Te-chen, the Superintendent of Police, has obtained twenty days' leave of absence, for the purpose of attending the burial services of his late mother whose death took place some time ago at Shanghai. From another source, it is stated that the departure of Wu Te-chen, is hastened by a summons from Sun Fo.

TROOPS MOVE.

CANTON ARMY BEGINS ADVANCE.

BATTLE EXPECTED.

Regarding the relative positions of the opposing military forces in southern Kwangtung, news is to hand that Tang Poon-yan's forces are concentrated on the peninsula near Luichow, and that his position has been somewhat strengthened by the new alliance which he has formed with three other Generals. The position of the Canton Army remains largely unaltered, its forces being on a line from Yueng Kwong to Loting, and then in a south-westerly direction towards Shun Yee.

Since the lull on the battle front, the Canton Army's activities have been confined to bringing up reinforcements of the troops of the 4th Army Corps from the East River sector, and to the replacing of the Yunnan units by fresh troops of the 3rd Army Corps from the North River Sector, and also transporting ammunition to various points on the front.

It is now reported that a general advance of the Canton Army has commenced. The left wing, comprising the entire 3rd Army Corps and a part of the Kwangsi unit, is advancing on Tiu Pak with Kao Chow as its objective, and the right wing, which is made up of the 4th Army Corps and a small portion of the Hunan unit, is advancing on Shun Yee, with two objectives—Kao Chow and Shek Shing. It is expected that a severe battle will be fought in a few days, and the ultimate result is likely to be in favour of the Canton forces, since the different units have been re-organised the command is now consolidated in the Chief of the General staff. It is also reported that the recently appointed Administrator of Civil Affairs, in the South West sector, Kum Nai-kwong, proceeded to Kongmoon on the 23rd inst., by the gunboat Kong Ku. He is expected to be away for one month, and his present post, as Chief of the Propaganda Department, has been taken over by Chan Kung-pok for the time being.

It is stated that Wang Ching-wai has agreed, as one of the conditions in the agreement between the Canton Government and Li Chung-yan and, Wong Shi-hung, for their co-operation and material assistance, to permit the Kwangsi unit, in the event of Tang Poon-yan and his adherents being eliminated from the southern districts, to be stationed in Yum Chow and Lim Chow, the two extreme south-west districts on the coast, thus giving Kwangsi a direct communication to the sea. This was the bone of contention when the Kwangsi influence was at its height with Mok Wing-sun as Tsuchun of Kwangtung, and which resulted in Chan King-ming ultimately driving the Kwangsi element completely out of power from Kwangtung.

In confirming the previous report of the arrival of Chang Kai-shek from Swatow, another report comes to hand saying that Chang secretly arrived at Whampoa where he is expected to remain for a few days' rest before he proceeds up to Canton, and, in the meantime, the Military Academy quarters are heavily guarded and pickets are closely stationed within a radius of one mile from the Academy. No boats of any kind are allowed to go within fifty feet of the jetty of the Academy, and only launches are permitted to

THE NORTHERN SITUATION.

SENSATIONAL REPORTS.

Peking, Nov. 24.—The general opinion is that the military situation is worsening.

Chang Tso-lin has wired accusing Feng Yu-shiang of a breach of faith in connection with their recent agreement.

Wu Kuang-hsin has returned to Peking and is working hard for peace.

Later.

Wu Kuang-hsin is reported to have informed the Cabinet to-day that fighting between the Feng-tienites and Feng Yu-shiang is almost unavoidable. Both sides are almost completely prepared for action.

Tuan Chi-jui instructed Wu Kuang-hsin to go again to Tientsin, see Li Ching-lin and urge peace. Wu Kuang-hsin accordingly went to Tientsin this afternoon.—Reuter.

Yesterday a telegram was received in Hongkong from a Japanese source stating that Li Ching-lin, Governor of Chihli, has issued a circular telegram requesting the resignation of Chang Tso-lin, Governor of Manchuria.

Later.

It is reliably reported that the Mukdenite General Kuo Sung-ling, stationed at Luanchow, has revolted against Chang Tso-lin. General Chang Tso-hsiang, was sent from Shanhaikuan to suppress him, but Kuo Sung-ling's troops are reported to have defeated Chang.

Kuo Sung-ling is now stated to be advancing toward Mukden at the head of four divisions.—Reuter.

Peking, November 25.—It is reported that Chang Tso-lin's troops cut the railway at Chinwangtao in order to hinder his advance at least temporarily. The collapse of the Mukden party has immensely strengthened Feng Yu-shiang.—Reuter.

PECULIAR TRAGEDY.

VERDICT OF SUICIDE RETURNED.

The enquiry into the death of a Chinese who was found on November 7, with his throat cut at No. 11 Sung Ling Lane, West Point, was resumed at the Central Magistracy yesterday afternoon, with Mr. R. E. Lindsell as Coroner and a jury composed of Messrs. C. Bentley (foreman) A. E. Burtram, and R. E. Macdougall.

Various witnesses who resided together with the deceased, were called but they were unable to throw any light on the tragedy. A hawker, who lives at Second Street said that he had been on friendly terms with the deceased for the last ten years, and just recently he had received a visit from him, when deceased told him that he was suffering from failing eye sight and was becoming deaf.

The Coroner summing up pointed out to the jury that the evidence of the occupants of the house suggested suicide, but against that evidence was the testimony of Dr. Minnett who stated that while it was possible for the injuries to be self-inflicted it was highly improbable.

The jury, returned a verdict of suicide while of unsound mind.

ARMY BEAT "REST" OF THE ARMY.

Capt. Morris Scores Century.

The Rest were very decisively beaten yesterday in an all day match with the Army on the Hongkong Club ground.

The Rest went in first and batted fairly well, only just failing to reach the 200. Capt. Armstrong hit 64, Sergt. Walker 42 and Capt. Kent 31. A "tail" showed itself and the innings closed earlier than it at one time promised.

The Army did not start brilliantly and the first wicket fell early. Strip, however, hit 31 and Capt. Morris played steady and attractive cricket and scored all round the wicket. Strip and Bridgeland were dismissed and Major Hattersley Smith joined Morris. The rate of scoring increased and the bowlers were completely mastered.

Morris scored 123 before retiring and soon afterwards Hattersley Smith put a ball into the road at the Supreme Court end and retired. Walters hit a quick 41 and Smith 21 while his partner got five.

The fielding of the Rest deteriorated with the bowling and the latter stages were uninteresting. Scores:

Strange Story of the Sunderbunds.

Major H. E. Rudkin, of Wallingford, Berks, contributes to the London Morning Post a description of a strange creature with a body like a crocodile but with a head about the size and shape of a Rugby football which he encountered during a three month's shooting expedition in the hot weather of 1901 in the Sunderbunds.

He writes: Accompanied by a shikari and my Sikh orderly I had been following the tracks of a tiger and tigress for some hours, and, after a crawl through thick "hital," we had finally got near the couple, which were busily engaged in devouring a large boar, but by time I had crawled forward and was able to see into the recess where the "kill" lay, both tiger and tigress had disappeared.

I was loth to give up hope of still getting a shot and I therefore took up my position in some thick "hital" bushes from which, while concealed, I could view the "kill" about ten yards away, thinking that the pair might return to finish the repast.

I had been there for about an hour when out of a watercourse a strange-looking animal appeared. The creature was about ten feet long and had a body very like a crocodile, but instead of the ordinary crocodile head it had one about the size and shape of a Rugby football, though rather flatter, with a comparatively slender neck about two feet long. It made straight for the dead pig and started eating it. Shortly after another appeared, and soon there were at least a dozen round the carcass. They varied in length from twelve to five or six feet, and all had the same shaped heads, which they constantly raised on their long necks as they quarrelled with each other over their meal.

I did not want them to consume the pig and tried to frighten them away by showing myself and throwing lumps of mud at them, but they took no notice, and I soon realised that my only hope of scaring them was to shoot. This, however, I was particularly anxious not to do as it was my intention if the tigers did not return to the pig, to tie up a goat for them, and I knew that the sound of a shot would probably spoil my chance.

Also, although I had never before seen creatures such as I have described I thought that their existence was probably well-known to naturalists, and that the bagging of a specimen was not worth a shot under the circumstance. The result was that in a very short time there was very little left of the pig, and the strange beasts disappeared.

With the exception of a sportsman whose name I have forgotten, whom I met some years afterwards in Poona, and who said he had seen similar animals once in the Assam jungles, which adjoin the Sunderbunds, I have never met anyone who has known of their existence. They were certainly not muggers or ghurials, the only two kinds of crocodiles I know of in India, of which I have shot a number.

Canada's foreign trade now places her among the first six nations of the world as an exporting and importing country, a place which she has won not only by the export of her vast annual grain crops, but also as a manufacturing nation. In the year ending August 31, 1925, the exports of the Dominion reached new heights when the total value of her export trade was placed at $1,130,753,557.

Armistice Day in Shanghai.

A highly impressive and touching ceremony took place at the War Memorial at Shanghai on Armistice Day morning when Senior Consul Comm. G. N. de Rossi (Italy) headed a procession of public representatives, club officials, consular officers, etc., and laid the first wreath at the foot of the Cenotaph. After the Senior Consul (seen in inset at right top corner of picture) had addressed the gathering, the various representatives also placed their wreaths around the base of the monument. There was a great number of floral tributes and our picture shows the public examining them after the official ceremony. Inset on the left shows officials saluting the Memorial.

Seamen's Good Work.

Passengers rescued from the S. S. Comanche when she caught fire off the coast of Florida praised the work of these members of the crew. Left to right they are John Sweeny, night watchman, and Boottgen, third officer. Much criticism has been directed at other members of the crew, and a government investigation has been ordered.

Spectators at Cenotaph Ceremony.

Shanghai witnessed a fitting celebration of Armistice Day. From nine o'clock onwards the morning hours were mainly devoted to solemn thought of those who had died, the chief functions being the wreath-laying ceremony at the War Memorial, the services in Holy Trinity Cathedral and other Churches, and the generally observed silence of two minutes at 11 o'clock. The first public ceremony took place at the Cenotaph, during which this picture was taken. In the background the A.P.C. Building with many spectators at windows and on the verandahs, while in front of the War Memorial are seen Allied Naval and Consular officials.

ANTI-MOSQUITO WORK.

There has recently been a revival of the local agitation for anti-malarial work on an effective scale, and it may be presumed that the authorities (when funds permit) will undertake a thorough campaign for the purpose of satisfying one of our most urgent health requirements. The number of cases of malignant malaria in the summer, and the present severe, widespread dengue infection, can be traced directly to the unusually large number of mosquitoes that have appeared in the Colony since last spring. Of reasons advanced for this prevalence of the annoying insects the most acceptable is the comparative absence of high winds and heavy rains, such as would scour out breeding-places or blow the pests to sea. Quite apart from prophylactic measures—such as quinine dosage—in the case of probable reservoir-holds, constantly open to infection, like New Territories villagers, there is the necessity for systematic tackling of the mosquito problem. We should not have to plead such natural phenomena as calms and moderate rainfall when over mosquito-borne diseases break out amongst the community. It savours too much of the primitive. And when we come down to the core of the problem it resolves itself into the elementary one—stressed almost ad nauseam—of intensive destruction of larvae and prevention of breeding.

Having said as much, we desire to disclaim the least intention of "elating" any particular Government organisation for failure to rid this Colony of the mosquito pest. The public is often prone to be unthinkingly critical. We know that much valuable work has been done in the past, and is maintained to-day, whereby the incidence of malaria has been reduced considerably. The training of drainage nullahs, clearing of brushwood on flat land, and other measures, have met with signal success. But it has never been sufficient to clear special areas of the menace, while ineffective districts remain in juxtaposition. There are several square miles of territory on the mainland, for instance, that are breeding mosquitoes by the hundreds of thousands, and until these areas have been systematically tackled the outbreaks of illness to which the community is periodically subjected must continue. In the present "transition period" much has to be left undone. Drainage problems which seemed grave enough a few years ago are intensified by the numerous building and levelling operations in different parts of the Colony. A lessening of the mosquito menace must necessarily be dependent on these and various other factors, so reforms have perforce to be delayed. Yet obviously the matter is one where even a modified campaign will be extremely welcome, and productive of valuable results.

The average person has now, with the great general interest taken by the public in the question, a fair knowledge of mosquitoes and their life histories; the culpable species, and the different methods employed for their destruction. Some of these practices are simple enough, but could not be employed extensively here. Our terrain requires a combination of methods that could only meet with full success under constant expert supervision. Discussing the question without any claim to specialised knowledge, yet having had experience of anti-mosquito work in other countries, we might indicate the impossibility of applying only the cruder remedies to this Colony. Oiling of temporary pools on flat land has met with much success elsewhere—here it is not practicable to adopt such methods except in a few places. The use of oil is in any case objectionable owing to its destruction of harmless, and often valuable, organisms. Nevertheless, wherever its use is indicated, there should be an effective adoption of oiling. Then comes the question of clearing overgrown areas. It has been proved in recent years that broad shaded streams do not breed malaria-carriers, and that the former practice of clearing anything and everything in the way of brushwood is in many cases likely to increase rather than decrease the menace. This is where the advice of the scientifically trained man will have to be sought. Of considerable interest, again, has been the study of the part played by fish in devouring mosquito larvae. The well-known "millions" fish of the West Indies cannot, perhaps, be successfully introduced to other parts of the tropics, but local study will doubtless bring forth good results. Mr. Sowerby, the eminent zoologist of this part of the world, in his recent writings has advocated encouragement of the Chinese paradise fish as a suitable foe of larvae. We believe the matter is receiving special attention in Shanghai.

Certainly, Hongkong owes the comparative immunity of areas abounding in streams and pools to the presence of small native fishes, and it is a subject that might well be developed more fully. We have been favoured with some brief notes made by a local naturalist during recent collecting expeditions, which should be of general interest. We take three widely-separated areas. Streams draining the south side of the Peak towards Pokfulam were investigated, and produced many pools stocked with a small species of catfish, large tadpoles, and freshwater crabs and shrimps. There was no trace anywhere of mosquito larvae. The

THANKSGIVING DAY.

THOUGHTS ON ANGLO-AMERICAN UNITY.

[CONTRIBUTED.]

To-day, wherever Americans congregate they will be celebrating Thanksgiving Day. This is the only holiday officially recognized by Presidential proclamation. It is the oldest holiday in American history. It is the holiday of the United States in which thanks is given to Almighty God for peace and prosperity.

For us as Britishers this holiday may mean little, but it might be as well to enquire into the origin and meaning of Thanksgiving Day. It commemorates the landing of a little band of Englishmen, women and children, who landed from the "Mayflower" three hundred years ago, on the shores of New England. This little group was of pure English stock and their descendants for 150 years owed allegiance to the British Crown.

The men who signed the Declaration of Independence were of British blood, with the memory of Magna Carta as their guide. Their language was the language of England. Their law was English law. Their religion was the religion of England. Their fight for religious freedom and civil liberty was the result of Anglo-Saxon tradition.

It is well for us to remember that the Republic of the United States came from the loins of Mother England. George Washington, "Father of his country," was born a British subject. His patron, Lord Fairfax of Virginia, secured him a Commission in the British Navy, but, at the request of Washington's mother, he declined this and served Lord Fairfax as a surveyor. George Washington had his first military experience in the British colonial forces, where he served in the Indian wars. It is also a significant fact that practically all the leaders in the American revolutionary war were Free Masons in Masonic Lodges originally founded by English charters.

Every President of the United States, with the exception of Theodore Roosevelt, has claimed British ancestry. This mighty nation of America—son of a mighty Mother—owes a big debt to its ancestry. Its language, its literature, its law and its customs have their tap-root in English soil.

We Britishers may view competitively this giant among nations which has sprung from our common stock, but we can at least point with pride that we have begotten a son who represents law and order and not the principles of disorder and Bolshevism.

It is a custom in the Rotary Clubs of England to have the entwined flags of Great Britain and the United States in their meetings, and so long as these flags are entwined, pledged for the protection of Anglo-Saxon civilization and the peace of the world, so long should the two nations remember the origin of Thanksgiving Day.

catfish, studied in captivity, proved most voracious, devouring large numbers of larvae fed to them. In a stream at Shatin, freshwater shrimps and a species of small fish which had suckers underneath and toothed jaws were taken. No mosquito larvae could be found. The fish were positively pugnacious, and in the aquarium rose to settling mosquitoes and snapped them up on the surface, besides swallowing unlimited quantities of larvae. An old freshwater tank in the hills at the back of Kowloon Tong had small, somewhat delicate fish, surface swimmers, that ate sparingly of larvae. But the standing water was full of various predaceous aquatic insects, and was absolutely free from any suggestion of mosquito life. Much more might be learned by studying this aspect of the question. For the present, the Colony is content with some what sporadic efforts, seldom rising above the suppression of rubbish dumps containing old tins and other receptacles for rain water. But when we look ahead, to that great and growing Colony which has been so optimistically referred to in recent farrowell speeches, we also visualise a big anti-mosquito campaign, on a necessarily expensive and predominantly scientific scale.

SHANGHAI LETTER.

Racecourse Incident—Ban on Communists—Public Executions.

(Our Own Correspondent.)

Shanghai, Nov. 21. New developments in Shanghai through recent days have been confined almost exclusively to things happening in the native territory immediately adjoining the French and International Settlements where the new Chokiang regime now holds sway under Chinese martial law.

Shanghai's foreign community, perhaps in common with foreign communities elsewhere in China, lately has been quiescent so far as news goes, content to carry forward what business it has been possible to do with railways paralyzed from a glut of military activity, and awaiting as optimistically as may be the outcome of the strife in the North, the decisions that are to be arrived at by the Peking Tariff Conference and for some kind of a peaceful readjustment of things in general.

Races Stopped. Outstanding among other things incidental to the new Chinese rule was the affair at the Kiangwan racecourse at Saturday's meeting when the programme abruptly was disrupted and the racing brought to a pause through Chinese official action.

What actually happened continues to remain a matter of doubt, despite a formal explanation just issued by the International Recreation Club. Common report was that after the racing had begun a demand suddenly was presented for payment from the Race Club of a sum variously estimated to run up to as much as $100,000. The races were stopped while holders of pari-mutuel and sweeps tickets began to grow dubious and a considerable portion of the Chinese attendance, alarmed by the show of military uniforms, filtered away unobtrusively. The Race Club prior to the meeting had made a payment to the military commander of the district of the sum of $2,000, it has since been disclosed, and the theory of this was that soldiers were to be provided to safeguard the attendance at the meeting. Then, at the conclusion of the first race, came the demand for more squeeze, this time from a police official, it is said, who proclaimed the police were in no wise concerned with the soldiery. It was only possible to continue the programme after a lapse of two hours after protracted parleys between Race Club officials and the objecting constabulary. Half of the card was completed.

No Communism. Whatever other faults or virtues the Chekiang officials may possess it has been made exceedingly clear that they are uncompromisingly set against anything smacking of Communism. Labour agitation and activities of radicals are utterly under the ban of the Chinese authorities and after insisting upon retaining the seals upon offices of labour unions, originally closed by the preceding Fengtien regime, the new overlords have gone a step further, completely forbidding any forms of public assemblages.

It is said that it was upon the theory that public meetings had been forbidden in Chinese territory that the incident at the Kiangwan racecourse was based. But besides putting sharp check upon incipient labour agitation, latterly the attention of the Chinese officials has been turned upon what the Chinese students organizations have been about and as this is written formal notice has been forwarded to officers of the Shanghai Students Union warning them that their organization must immediately cease all activities that may menace public peace and order. The threat is made by the officials to close and seal the student-body's headquarters if the warning goes unheeded.

Gruesome Spectacles. It may be said probably that the rule of the Chekiang authorities, certainly more drastic than those of preceding Chinese administrations, also is more primitive. And in illustration of this are a number of executions that lately have taken place. In other times malefactors condemned to death have been disposed of without particular announcement or show. They simply were taken to the execution grounds at Lungwha arsenal and shot. This is all changed to-day, for executions have become public affairs, are held in one of the most thickly populated districts, and are heralded in announcements published in the vernacular press, usually the day before they take place.

Another action of the Chekiang authorities that has occasioned concern has been the re-opening of the Kiangwan arsenal in defiance of the solemn proclamation from Peking of a year ago closing this establishment as an arms making plant with the announced purpose of having it converted under the auspices of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce into an industrial enterprise. Essential parts of machinery for gun and munitions making which had been held under lock in godowns by the Chamber of Commerce lately were seized forcibly by the Chinese authorities and these have been replaced at the arsenal which again is humming actively in the production of armament.

In a report which was published yesterday of the prosecution of "froward hunters", it was erroneously stated that the arrests were effected by a party of constables. We since learn that the raid was carried out by a posse of forest guards under the direction of Mr. J. L. King, of the Forestry and Botanical Department.

Ordinarily the time of slaughter is around the noon hour and the most striking thing about the changed conditions is that culprits now are being beheaded, a form of execution virtually unknown hitherto in Shanghai. Out of all this grow gruesome and fearful spectacles that take place on an open space of ground a little north of the Settlement border on Honan Road.

Raids and seizures of press gangs continue to keep roadways in Chinese territory almost barren of coolie life and these have had the effect of sending into the foreign settlement large numbers of destitute and unemployed Chinese workers seeking refuge from capture for the military service. One natural result has been that crimes of violence have increased measurably and within the past week two whole villages have been seized and given over to pillage by marauding bands. These communities are located a stone's throw from Jessfield in Shanghai's western district.

Another action of the Chekiang authorities that has occasioned concern has been the re-opening of the Kiangwan arsenal in defiance of the solemn proclamation from Peking of a year ago closing this establishment as an arms making plant with the announced purpose of having it converted under the auspices of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce into an industrial enterprise.

Essential parts of machinery for gun and munitions making which had been held under lock in godowns by the Chamber of Commerce lately were seized forcibly by the Chinese authorities and these have been replaced at the arsenal which again is humming actively in the production of armament.

PLAY AND PLAYERS.

MAJOR SOON ANSWERED.

By "Wanderer."

Neither A. B. Gardner nor Drummer Bowles has wasted any time in replying to the challenge of Harry Major, the erstwhile leading bantamweight of the Colony.

Bowles suggests a fifteen three-minute rounds contest on December 24th, pointing out that an experienced boxer of Major's calibre should be in a position to back his challenge within a month.

Gardner adopts a slightly different attitude. He was at the Telegraph office last evening and he suggests that Major in issuing a challenge to him, knows it is possible that the Hermes may be somewhere in the Mediterranean in January next. At the same time Gardner is perfectly willing to meet Major on December 7th, the last occasion on which he will have an opportunity of fighting in this Colony.

Gardner's bouts in this Colony have been left in the hands of the Hongkong Boxing Association and as far as we are able to gather, the present suggestion is that a return contest between Gardner and Bowles would prove the most interesting.

To return to Major, he is an example of the well-known fact that the way of the ambitious nose-denter is not always smooth. Not many months ago Major was looked upon by fans as a young gentleman of the ring who might at some time or other make a high mark in the fistic game. He looked the part until he left the Army and came up against Bowles and was well trounced. It is doubtful whether he can get in perfect trim until December 24th at the very earliest for the fact that he now stipulates 126 pounds, when it is not long ago that he could make 118 lbs with comparative ease, is indicative that in a short time he has run to seed.

SOUTH CHINA BEAT HAWKINS.

With Pang Wah-hing leading their line, South China beat the Hawkins by two goals to one at Sookunpoo last evening after being a goal down soon after the start.

Pang Wah-hing who came into the eleven from the reserve, side held the line together far better than Leung Wing-tat was able to do, and furthermore he was responsible for both goals.

Play generally speaking was fast and fairly even, though Ball's goal was the result of a shot intended as a centre. Pang Wah-hing equalised with a good shot before half-time and after the interval again netted. The Hawkins had a good share of the game but their shooting was weak.

HIGH FLYING.

They tell us that planes are beating world's records for speed every day, the latest being 246 miles an hour in a seaplane.

That probably is fast enough. If your hat blew off going that speed you would probably have to go a long way back to fetch it.

Far better to stick to the old tram if you want to get to Happy Valley. If the tram stalls you are close enough to the ground to jump off, but in a Hermes plane it would be a fairly long jump.

And walking's a pastime anyway.

MONTAGUE-BATES CUP.

The Final of the Football Competition (in connection with the award of the "Montague-Bates" Platoon Challenge Cup) will be played on the Murray Barracks ground (probably next Wednesday). Kick off 4 p.m. The teams concerned are No. 2 Platoon (winners of the "Fowler" Cup competition 1925) and No. 7 Platoon.

GROWTH OF TENNIS.

With the growth of tennis to be one of the greatest national games, and certainly the most widespread internationally, "growing pains" are inevitable. At the same time, we need to face the fact that in the last year or two a continual series of unpleasant disclosures and small scandals have left an uneasy feeling in the public mind that some more deep-seated troubles lie at the root. Countless petty incidents on the courts, breaches of sportsmanship, rumours of veiled professionalism, have combined to make the followers of other amateur sports look rather askance at lawn tennis. Perhaps the sensational Press may have magnified out of proportion, and sometimes without warranty in fact, incidents such as spring from the highly-strung temperament of a Suzanne Lenglen. The supreme woman player of the day, indeed of the game's history, is wholly artist and wholly feminine. Like Tilden, who has told us that the historic and tradition-filled atmosphere of the Wimbledon Centre Court inspired him to reach heights previously unscalable by any foreign invader, Mlle. Lenglen responds also and with any great artist keyed up for the moment temperamental outbursts are natural.

But far worse still for the good name of lawn tennis are the rumours that float around that So-and-so is subsidised by a firm of racket manufacturers, that somebody else will only play at tournaments where "X's" balls are used, or, again, the oft-repeated query, "How does Blank," who is known to have neither business nor private income, "manage to spend his whole time playing at tournament after tournament, staying always at the best hotels?"

To all these disquieting internal symptoms is added the glaring external fact of the loss of our lawn tennis laurels; that England, the author and founder of the game, has sunk to a second-rate position among the tennis-playing nations. Further, instead of a combined and inspiring national effort to regain our former ascendancy, and at the same time to cleanse the game of its doubtful elements, we have the spectacle of constant bickering between the authorities and the players. Everywhere one goes in lawn-tennis circles there is widespread unrest and dissatisfaction with the control and guidance of the game.

The health of lawn tennis is no longer a domestic matter to be discussed and treated by a small clique of old-timers. In recent years the game numbers its followers in hundreds of thousands, every town and village has its club or municipal courts. The authorities, more or less self-appointed, must awake to the fact that they are no longer in the position of parents exercising undisputed control over their own offspring, but are merely trustees, holding their office at the will of the public, whom they must take into their confidence and to whom they must render account of their stewardship.

These young Frenchmen take their tennis seriously. A friend happened to see a light in La Coste's room late one night, and, fearing the youngster might be ill, went to investigate. He found La Coste in front of the mirror, swinging a tennis racket furiously. "I had a nightmare," explained La Coste, "about this stroke, but now I think I know what the matter is, so I got up to practice."

FOR LONDON HOSPITAL.

KOWLOON GIRLS THANKED.

Mr. G. F. Nightingale, Headmaster of the Central British School, has received the following letter from Lord Knutsford acknowledging the receipt of a draft for £24, result of the raffle of a carriage and dolls dressed by the girls of Classes 3 and 4:

Dear Mr. Nightingale, This is really splendid. "The London" is indeed indebted to the girls of Forms 3 and 4, and you cannot thank them too warmly for efforts and success alike.

I cannot tell you how I appreciate a gift of this kind that has come all this way, and the thought of all those small people giving all their thoughts and energy to helping this huge place quite delights me. Do tell any of them who would like to see "The London" when in England that they will be welcome, though a card in advance is always desirable.

I do indeed share your hope that these two Forms will make an annual event of their help, for it is just steady help that England's biggest Hospital stands most in need of.

The very best of good wishes to you all,

Yours gratefully,
(Signed) KNUTSFORD,
Chairman.

HOCKEY MATCH.

NAVY DEFEATS CLUB.

At the United Services Recreation ground, Kowloon, last evening, the Navy proved too strong for the Hongkong Hockey Club first team, and won comfortably by three goals to one. It was a fast and pleasing game to watch, and both sides showed good form. Although the Navy proved themselves to be two goals better than the Club, the latter were certainly not aided with any luck, and ought to have obtained at least two goals in the second half. Had they made better use of the opportunities that were presented to them, and shot straight and true, it is quite possible that the tables might have been turned.

As usual the Navy had capable halves, who closely followed up the forwards, or supported the backs as occasion demanded. The forwards were well up to scratch, Sillitoe in particular distinguishing himself. He had the honour of performing the hat trick, by scoring all three goals for the Navy. The backs, Lt. Wauchope, and Sub. L. Halsey, cleared with long, sure drives, and Lt. Garwood in goal was steady and sound.

The Club lacked that which was a feature of their play earlier in the season, combination. Certainly, the tenacity with which they were tackled, rendered it difficult to keep up consistent cohesion, but they could have shown up better in that matter. Dyer-Ball was an indefatigable forward, but was a rather poor shot. Woodward did not play as well as usual. All the forwards were weak in gathering passes from the wings, and thus many openings were missed. The backs found their hands full in holding the Navy forwards, and it was some time before they settled down.

The beginning of the game saw the Club defending, and the sailors pressing hard. Within the first few minutes, Sillitoe scored for the Navy. From the bulley-off, the Club attacked and Dyer-Ball, when given a good opportunity, spooned the ball over the bar. Shortly afterwards, Sillitoe added a second, and despite strenuous efforts by the Club the score was unchanged at half-time.

On resuming, the Club showed to better advantage, and several times it looked as though they were through, but the energy with which they were tackled successfully prevented them from scoring for some time. In a breakaway, Sillitoe scored for the navy. Dyer-Ball failed with an opening from a pass by Woodward, and the latter player himself failed when in a good position. After this, several scoring opportunities were lost. Eventually Woodward netted for the Club.

MOTOR MATTERS.

Sir,—Some time ago there was a case of a woman being killed by bamboo projecting from the rear of a motor truck in Kowloon. The driver got off for manslaughter, and the police, if I remember rightly, promised to regulate the length of bamboos or planks that motor trucks are allowed to carry, and I wonder what has so far been done in the matter.

Last Sunday I was driving a motor cycle and side car along Morrison Hill Gap towards Happy Valley and a serious accident nearly occurred on account of one of these trucks, with long bamboos protruding from its rear, swerving round to Stubbs Road on its way from the Valley. Luckily I was following a motor car and as the truck turned into Stubbs Road the bamboos hit the radiator of this car very heavily. If I had been in front, I would have had the full force of the contact and would have been knocked off my side car and another Coroner's enquiry may have been the result.

Perhaps the police might take note of this and regulate the length of these loads before another serious accident occurs.

Whilst on the matter of motors may I ask if the point duty police signals at Arsenal Street and Queen's Road junction regulate tram cars as well? As a motorist I have been signalled to pass on more than one occasion but had to swerve to avoid trams which do not appear to heed the signals of the police.—Your etc.

TORTURING HEADACHES.

Are Not Woman's Unavoidable Inheritance.

How They Can Be Checked and Overcome.

The aching backs, tired limbs, attacks of faintness and headache upon headache from which so many women suffer at periodical intervals indicate plainly that the blood is at fault, the nervous system is not functioning properly and tonic treatment is needed. To innumerable such women sufferers Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the blood and nerve tonic of world-wide renown, have brought not only speedy relief but permanent emancipation. One of these ladies, Miss Johanna van Rooy, of Mollendo, Cape Colony, has recorded her case in the following words:—

"When my illness began one of the first signs that something was wrong, was a rapid loss of weight and colour. Then severe headaches attacked me, and at times I thought my head would burst. Soon I had no appetite, a mouthful or two of food satisfying me for any meal. I could not sleep at night, and was always restless. My hands and feet were cold, and I was extremely pale. I was so nervous that the least noise, like the slamming of a door, made me worse. A friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She had suffered as I was suffering, and they cured her. I started taking them, and in a short time I noticed a change, and soon after was cured."

Your own druggist can supply Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or direct from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60, Kings Road, Shanghai. $1.50 per bottle, $6 for 6 bottles, post

U. S. ADMIRAL HERE.

DISTINGUISHED NAVAL OFFICER.

A full exchange of naval salutes at eight o'clock this morning announced the arrival in port of the U.S.S. Huron, flying the flag of the commander-in-Chief of the U.S. Asiatic Squadron, accompanied by the U.S.S. Albatross. The vessels, which left Shanghai on November 7th on their way back to Manila after a cruise in China waters, have visited Taku, Amoy and Swatow, and have put into Hongkong for a few days. They are due to leave here on Monday.

The new Commander-in-Chief of the Squadron, Admiral C. S.
Williams, made an official landing
during the course of the morning and paid a visit to Government House, the return visit being made later.

Admiral Williams, who took over the command of the Asiatic Squadron from Admiral Washington about a month ago, had had an interesting naval career. He was born at Springfield, Ohio, in October, 1863, and graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1884. He was promoted Ensign in July 1886, and was made a junior grade Lieutenant in 1893. He became full Lieutenant in 1898 and gained the rank of Lieutenant-Commander in 1904. He was promoted Captain in 1911 and took the rank of Rear-Admiral in December, 1918. Becoming a temporary Vice-Admiral in 1919, he now takes the rank of full Admiral whilst in Command of the Squadron. He commanded the U.S.S. Gwin in the Spanish-American War in 1898; served on the U.S.S. Prairie 1904-05, on the U.S.S. Massachusetts in 1905, and on the U.S.S. Iowa from 1905 to 1907.
Among the appointments he has held during his 41 years' service, have been those of Commander of U.S.S. Albany; a member of the Board of Inspection and Survey; Commander of U.S.S. Rhode Island; at the Naval War College;
Chief of the Staff, Battleship Force, Atlantic Fleet; Chief of Staff of Battleship Force Two, Atlantic Fleet; Commander of the Battleship Squadron One, Pacific Fleet; Commander of the Battleship Force of the Pacific; and several staff appointments at the Navy Department. Just prior to taking over the Command of the Asiatic Squadron, he was President of the Naval War College.

SHARE ALLOTMENT.

COMPANY'S APPLICATION
GRANTED.

In the Court of Original Jurisdiction this morning, before the Chief Justice, Sir Henry Gollan, Mr. Somerset Fitzroy, on behalf of the Tung Tin Restaurant, Ltd., made an application for leave to file a return of allotments.

He explained that the Company was incorporated on August 26th, 1924, with a fully paid up capital of $50,000, divided into five hundred shares of $100 each. The late Mr. B. S. Corke, who was the solicitor for the Company, died, and had not asked the manager to file any further documents relating to the shares, and he had been under the impression that all things that it was necessary to file had been filed. He had not known until recently that a formal return of the allotments had not been filed.

An extension of time was granted until December 3rd.

BORDER INCIDENTS.

POLICE FIRED ON
BY STRIKERS.

Rice Coolies Intercepted.

Two border incidents are reported to have taken place on Monday morning. In the first, a number of strikers opened fire on two European sergeants who were patrolling along the banks of Shum Chun River, while some time after the firing had subsided strikers crossed the border and forced some rice coolies to carry their loads into Chinese territory.

Shortly after ten o'clock on Monday morning while Sergeant's
Simpson and Whitby were on duty on the banks of the Shum Chun River, they were fired upon by strikers, who discharged four or five shots at the police officers. The sergeants replied, firing about 20 shots at the Chinese, one of whom is believed to have been injured.

A party of Chinese carrying about 50 piculs of rice from Lui Pok to Lokmachau, about two hours later, were half way between the two places when three strikers intercepted them and ordered them to take the rice to Chinese Territory. The three men who crossed the border were all armed with rifles.
